Art Unit: 3712

The information Disclosure Statement of 3/31/03 has been received. However, many of the references cited do not appear to be relevant to the claimed invention and have not been considered.

* * * * *

Claims 1-11, & 16 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Claim 1 does not include enough structure to build an operable device; it is not clear how the parts function together as a bow string release.

In claims 2-6, & 9-11, there is no antecedent for the "trigger".

Claim 16 appears to include a typographical error or missing words.

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless -

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Art Unit: 3712

Claim 16 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Peck 4,674,469.

Peck shows a bow string release including a trigger lever 62, a housing 32, and a manually adjustable trigger adjustment mechanism 54 coaxial with the housing. As the mechanism is adjusted, the amount of force required to pull the trigger will be adjusted, while the trigger travel distance will remain the same.

Claim 17 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Bankstahl 5,417,197.

Bankstahl shows a bow string release including a housing 10 having an axis perpendicular to bowstring 60, and jaws that rotate about the axis independently of the housing (column 4, lines 25-32).

Claims 12-14, & 18-22 are allowed.

Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

Art Unit: 3712

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
